

There's a person here who created a new way for app developers from all over the world to get paid—a system so innovative, a patent is in the works.

Imagine what you could do here.

Apple is offering a $10,000 scholarship for women in technology. It's your chance to be challenged, inspired, and proud.

To be eligible, you must be enrolled at Cal Poly, Carnegie Mellon, Georgia Tech, Harvey Mudd, MIT, Stanford, UC Berkeley, University of Michigan, or UT Austin—or be a past NCWIT Aspiration Award winner.

Submit your application by January 31, 2012. Get the details.
