

The Value of a Graduate Degree

GEORGIA TECH GRADUATE SWE PRESENTS: PANEL AND NETWORKING

JOIN US!

Are you about to graduate and don't know what to do with your degree? How should you prepare for all the opportunities after graduate school? Are you wondering whether you should pursue a career in R&D, industry or academia? Join Georgia Tech SWE in a night of networking and inspiration. Following dinner, you will have the opportunity to hear speakers with various backgrounds in industry or academia with graduate degrees. Panelists composed of female STEM faculty and professionals will share their experiences about their path through a graduate degree and what they did with it after graduating. Following the panel, you will have a chance to mingle and network with these women in technical fields.
