

Facilitator Introduction

Catalina is the founder of Catalyst Creation, which focuses on creating tools to build change makers to enable them to live their best lives by daring to go after their dream career. Catalina has helped students across 13+ universities (incl. Ivy, HBCU, & HSI) gain the knowledge to land a job in Tech by speaking to 10,000+ students, hosting 100+ events, and helping secure 129 offers (~27% URM) at companies like Facebook, Twitter, Asana and Andreessen Horowitz. She is also AfroColombian and has a passion for helping women and professionals of color get connected to the Tech Industry.

